Meet the experts that have been through the struggles and are here to address what sexual addiction is and how to recovery from it.

3. What fantasies are lurking in your subconscious mind and destroying your desire to have sex with your wife/husband?

What is going on in your mind that is draining your desire to have sex with your wife/husband? How long has it been since you have experienced intimacy within your relationship? How withdrawn have you become that you are unable to connect on an emotional level?

Sexual Addiction is not an addiction to sex as is widely believed. Sexual addiction is a disconnect from intimacy on an emotional level and on a physical level. The term is sexual anorexia—the withholding of physical and emotional intimacy from your primary partner. Help your listeners understand what is really going on behind the closed doors of their bedroom.
